Discussion Questions for "I Will Make You Fishers of Men"

1. What new insight did you gain by watching this video? How do you respond to this new insight? How will you realign your life based on this new understanding?

2. In Luke 5:8, Peter declares that he is a sinful man and not worthy to be in Yeshua's presence. What do we know about Peter's background that would describe his lifestyle? When the prophet Isaiah saw a vision of being in the presence of God in Isaiah 6, he declared that he had unclean lips. Compare these two situations.

3. Yeshua ate at the home of Matthew Levi in Luke 5:29-32. At the end of Yeshua's ministry, He ate with another tax collector in Luke 19:1-10. Compare these two events that occurred at the beginning and end of His ministry. How do they "bookend" His ministry?

4. Going fishing with Yeshua is another event that provides “bookends” for Yeshua’s ministry. He first calls His disciples to be fishers of men in Luke 5:4-11. Yeshua again goes fishing with the same disciples in John 21:1-13. How do these events “bookend” Yeshua’s ministry? How are the events similar? How are they different? Compare Peter’s response in each situation.

5. Yeshua called Simon Peter, James, and John to leave their miraculous catch behind and follow Him. Yeshua called others and discouraged or rejected others from following Him. Look up some of those passages. What is the overarching theme? What message does Yeshua give to those He accepts and those He turns away?
