Discussion Questions for "Water, Wine and a Wedding Feast"

1. What new insight did you gain by watching this video? How do you respond to this new insight? How will you realign your life based on this new understanding?

2. In the video we looked at John 1:46-47 where Yeshua encounters Nathanael. Yeshua says that He saw Nathanael under the fig tree. What is the biblical significance of the fig tree? How is it connected to Nathanael? Reference other places in the scriptures where a fig tree is mentioned.

3. In the Messianic age we will experience an abundance of wine, or more specifically the fruit of the vine. Large grapes or large bunches of grapes are mention in relation to the Land of Israel when the 12 spies go to Hebron. How is this or other aspects of the Land of Israel a reflection of the Messianic age?

4. John the Baptist had gathered many disciples around him while teaching and baptizing at Bethabara. Disciples of any teacher of that day lived with and committed themselves to mentorship and memorization of the teacher's words. Disciples of John appear in many places in the scriptures: Matthew 9:14, 14:12; Luke 5:33; John 4:1. In Acts 19:1-7 Paul encounters a group of John's disciples. How does this encounter demonstrate John's messages ad how does it "prepare the way of the LORD?"

5. John the Baptist called Yeshua, "The lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world!" With this statement, we normally think of the Passover sacrifice of a lamb as being that which "takes away the sin of the world." But the Passover sacrifice was a Peace offering, or Shalem offering where portions are shared with God, the priests and the family of the one bringing the offering. How is Yeshua's sacrifice both a Peace offering and a sin offering?
