Discussion Questions for Who Shall be King, Priest and Prophet

1. What new insight did you gain by watching this video? How do you respond to this new insight? How will you realign your life based on this new understanding?

2. How does Paul address each of the three things that Moses said a king should not do in his instructions about selecting a leader in 1 Timothy 3? How can we apply this to choosing a government leader when we vote?

3. Moses instructed the children of Israel not to return to Egypt to multiple horses in Deuteronomy 17:16. What would this mean in today's context?

4. God used Gideon to win a decisive battle over the Midianites. What qualities of faith did Gideon demonstrate when God first appeared to him in the wine press as related in Judges 6:11-20?

5. Jeremiah warns against automatically thinking a dream or vision is from God in Jeremiah 23:25-28. What is one way that regular dreams are distinguished from dreams from God? How do these non-inspired dreams cause people to forget God? Consider 2 Cor 2:17 and 1 Peter 2:2 in your answer.

6. Moses told the children of Israel that the Levites, and in particular, the sons of Aaron, did not receive an inheritance in the land. They were instead to minister in the name of the LORD. The word minister is #8334, Shaw-rath (שרת) meaning to serve in a menial capacity. How did Yeshua minister in the name of the LORD?
