1. What new insight did you gain by watching this video? How do you respond to this new insight? How will you realign your life based on this new understanding?
2. Esau's hatred of Jacob was rooted in his rebellion against God. What other Biblical examples are there of hatred for a person or group of people rooted in rebellion against God?
3. Esau and his descendants, the Edomites, had a knowledge of God as demonstrated by Obadiah 1:10. In judgment, they would be held accountable in relation to their knowledge. How does this apply to God's judgment of other nations mentioned elsewhere in the Bible? How does it apply to Israel and Judah? What does Yeshua, the apostle Paul, or other apostles have to say about this concept?
